

STATISTICALLY SPEAKING

62% of expats feel their quality of life has improved since moving to SA

ONE THIRD

who relocated to SA for work are over the age of 55, compared to the global average of 22%

Have been in SA for more than 20 years Have been here for less than 11 years

Have been here for 11 to 19 years

55% say they plan to stay for more than 20 years

The reasons for staying longer than intended include quality of life 51%, the climate 36%

having started a relationship locally 30% and not being willing to leave friends and family made here 27%

While expats were largely positive about South Africa, the country's ranking as a great place to live and work for expats slipped from 27th place (2018) to 30th (2019)

